

Work to do at home. Exercises with Answer Keys

A/An, The , zero article (/)

Page 1 : Vocabulary. Describing the Future. Exercises A, B, C

Page 2 : Reading : New Working Model. Exercises D, E

Page 3 : Language Review : Prediction and Probability ; Exercise A

Written work to be handed in and to be marked :

1. Broken Sentences

2. page 1 : Vocabulary. Exercise B. Write sentences using the expressions in Exercise A (Vocabulary : Describing the Future) Example : Using cash could become a thing of the past.

3. WRITING.

- a) Make a brief summary of the document « New Working Model » in 180 to 200 words.
b) With the present economic situation caused by the pandemic of the corona virus, how do you see the future of industries in the year ahead ? Use the adjectives in « Describing the Future » with some of the adverbs given below :
possibly, potentially, probably, certainly, ; undoubtedly 180 words +/-10 %

Date échéance : Vendredi 10 Avril 2020

Answer Keys.

Vocabulary.

A. Describing the future

- 1 up-to-date
- 2 a thing of the past
- 3 ahead of its time
- 4 old-fashioned
- 5 state-of-the-art
- 6 the way forward
- 7 out of time
- 8 up to the minute
- 9 at the cutting edge
- 10 behind the times

C. Adjectives

Very bad	bad	good	Very good bleak	worrying	bright	brilliant depressing	uncertain	promising	great
dreadful	doubtful		prosperous
terrible			magnificent
dire			marvellous
			rosy

Reading. New Working Model.

Exercise D.

1. Excessive labour market regulation
2. world economic leadership
3. in-house economic think-tank
4. potentially huge markets
5. lower vehicle development costs
6. new niche markets
7. world-class research centres

Exercise E. Form : Adverb (-ly) + adjective + noun + noun

1. increasingly difficult market conditions
2. exceptionally gifted university researchers
3. increasingly high unemployment rate
4. rapidly developing information technology

Page 3/ Prediction and Probability :

1. unlikely
2. certain
3. unlikely
4. probable
5. impossible
6. possible
7. possible
8. probable
9. certain

10. certain

11. certain